

Angel Guardiola Mas

Born in Murcia

Bachelor of Medicine at the University of Granada in 1971.

Doctor in Medicine at the University of Murcia. Doctoral thesis on kidneys' transplants, urological and vascular complications.

House doctor at Hospital la Paz in Madrid in 1971-1972.

Specialised in Urology at the University of Barcelona as resident at Hospital Valle Hebrón with Professor Dr. Francisco Solé Balcells at the Urology Department.

Assigned to the Urology Department at Hospital Virgen de la Arrixaca of Murcia since 1976.

Specialist and member of the unit of transplants and organs at hospital Virgen de la Arrixaca of Murcia since it was created in 1977.

Numerary member of the Spanish Association of Urology.

Founder member of the Association of Urology of Murcia.

Founder member of the Spanish Association of Andrology.

Promoter and medical chairman of the Renal Lithotripsy Clinic 'Unit of the Southeast' until 1991.

Presently chairman of the Medical Council of Surgical and Medical Polyclinic Belén.